The development and performance of REVIVAL 7 Revelries has been made possible with public funds from the National Endowment for the Arts, and by the New York State Council on the Arts with the support of Governor Kathy Hochul and the New York State Legislature. This program is also supported, in part, by public funds from the New York City Department of Cultural Affairs and the New York City Department for the Aging, in partnership with the City Council and Manhattan Borough President Mark Levine. Special support is provided by Council Members Shaun Abreu, Shoshana Haniff, Gale Brewer, Erik Bottcher, Julie Won, Althea Stevens, and Manhattan Borough President Mark Levine. Support for DVP and this program is also provided by the Alpern Foundation, Jody and John Arnhold, Columbia Community Service, Leibowitz and Greenway Family Charitable Foundation, Morningside Heights Community Fund, the New York Community Trust, NYU Community Fund, the Pasculano Foundation, Laurie M. Tisch Illumination Fund, the Upper Manhattan Empowerment Zone Development Corporation administered by LMCC, the Washington Square Park Conservancy, and the West Harlem Development Corporation. This program was also made possible through support from Creatives Rebuild New York's Artist Employment Program, a three-year, $125 million investment in the financial stability of New York State artists and the organizations that employ them.
